Schultz's beer made Milwaukee famous, and is having the same effect on the Grotto. Nothing better on the market.

The Occident tenorial parlors and bath facilities are equalled by none. Everything modern and up to date. See Peterson.

Police Judge Anderson was able to sit up yesterday. He is slowly recovering, but it will be some time before he will be well enough to attend to his duties.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to George Tucker of Hammond and Miss Margaret Boyce of Kalama. They will be married at Hammond today.

If you have a cough or cold be sure and get a bottle of White Pine Cough Syrup. The best to be had. For sale at the Owl and Eagle Drug Stores, at 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

A costumer arrived from Portland yesterday, and persons desiring to secure costumes for the masquerade ball tomorrow night can do so by calling at the sample rooms of the Occident hotel.

It is strange that people do not understand the rules of the street railway company. The cars always stop on the opposite side of the crossing. That is, cars going to Uppertown stop on the east side of the crossing, so that the car will not obstruct the street crossing. Yet men and women invariably hail a car from the opposite side and are compelled to walk across the crossing to catch the car. Neither do cars stop in the middle of a crossing except the long block between Eleventh and Twelfth streets. To strangers coming from the east, the antics of some Astorians looks as though they had never lived in a city where there were street cars.

Captain of Police Gammal picked up a certificate of deposit on the street belonging to Ang. Brighia. It was from the Astoria Savings bank and was returned to the bank.

District Attorney Allen reported to the circuit court yesterday that he would have four or five criminal cases for trial at this term of court. At to whether they will plead guilty or demand a trial has not been settled.

Another section of the outer end of the jetty was carried away during the gale Sunday night, and all there is now left of it is a small photograph, and the bills for its construction filed in Washington.

The case of Leroy S. Davidson against the City of Astoria for $3800 damages will be tried with a jury on March 1. Davidson claims he fell through the roadway near Kinney's cannery in May, 1901, and sustained injuries to the tune of about $3500.

Your grandmother's coffee was good coffee. It was grown, carefully selected with care, roasted perfectly, sold pure. Our Golden Gate Mocha and Java has the goodness and purity used by your grandparents. A trial will convince you. Sold at ASTORIA GROCERY.

A good quality of coal is the most satisfactory and economical fuel you can use. Poor coal, like poor wood, is only an aggravation. High grade coal is far cheaper than any other fuel. Elmore & Co. sell only the best and deliver it in any part of the city, in sacks or lumps. Ring up phone 1961.

Helborn & Son have announced the lucky prize winners of the poems on the Monarch stove. Miss Alma Fricke was awarded first prize of $10; Floyd Foster secured the second prize of $5. The judges were Miss Dora Badolet, Miss May Utzinger and Miss Kate Sinnott. Helborn & Son are so well pleased with the result that they have concluded to present each contestant with a box of fine candy.

Articles of Incorporation of the Western Investment Company, with William G. Gosslin, Harry L. Hamblet and F. W. Newell of Portland as incorporators, were filed in the office of the secretary of state yesterday. The capital stock of the company is $100,000, some of which is held in Astoria. It is believed the company will purchase the old Seaside house at Seaside, upon which they have had an option for some time.

W. J. Cook, the Portland representative of the Astoria police commission, was in the city Sunday, and states that he will not resign his office. He claims Astoria as his home, although he has disposed of all his property and moved with his family to Portland. It's a two to one bet that he will never be elected again. Besides it is something not recorded in the annals of political jurisprudence where a democrat ever resigned from an office.

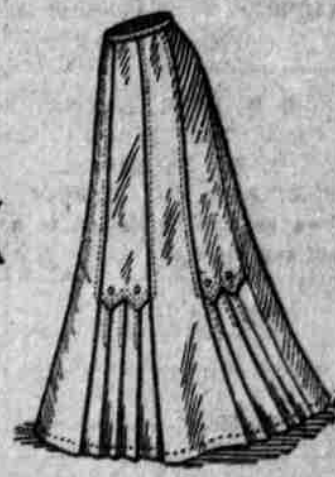

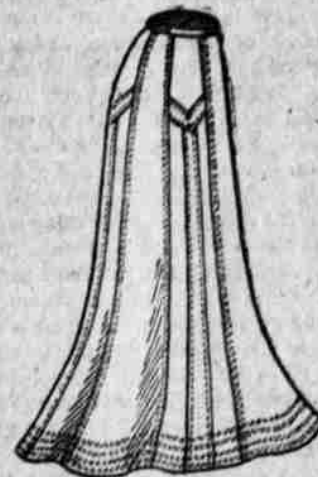

The Sons of Hermann have completed the decorations of Foard & Stokes' hall for the masquerade tomorrow night, and it presents a fine appearance. The decorations are something new and eclipse anything of the kind ever seen. All arrangements have been completed for the ball. The indications are that there will be more masquers than ever before and many new features will be introduced. The largest and best orchestra has been secured and it promises to be the best masquerade ever given in the city.

A dance was given at Ft. Columbia Saturday night, participated in by over 150 people. There were 39 couples in the grand march which was led by Captain Force and wife and Lieutenant Spur and wife. The Howard carried over a number of people from Astoria and guests were present from Chinook, Ft. Stevens and Ft. Canby. The Ft. Columbia band furnished the music up to midnight and the Ft. Columbia orchestra the remainder of the evening. The band was made up from musicians from Chinook, Ft. Columbia and Ft. Stevens. A splendid supper was prepared and seats arranged in the barracks for 150 couples. Captain Hazen of Astoria was the guest of the officers and reports that the dance was highly successful.
